Upper Heights Water Storage Tank Rehab Project

Alamogordo, NM Wednesday, November 28, 2018 The City of Alamogordo in conjunction with contractors are rehabbing the 2.2 million-gallon Upper Heights water storage tank beginning Thursday, November 29, 2018. This project is scheduled to last 180 days.

Please be advised, citizens may experience low water pressure in some areas of Zone 1 at unscheduled times. (Only in Zone 1, located East of Scenic Dr.)

The City crews will be working hard to minimize this inconvenience and appreciate your patience during this project. Please address any water concerns or questions to the Public Works office at 575-439-4240, thank you again.
