RESTRUCTURED RECREATION FEES

New fees go into effect: September 1, 2018

Alamogordo, NM Thursday, August 16, 2018 On Tuesday, August 14, 2018 – the City Commission approved the proposed restructuring of the recreation fees managed by the Alamogordo Family Recreation Center (AFRC). The proposed restructuring of the recreation fees was presented to the City of Alamogordo’s Parks and Recreation Board for review and approval before presentation to the City Commission for final approval. The new fees will go into effect on September 1, 2018. The last fee change was implemented over three years ago in July 2015.

Prior to submitting the proposed fee restructuring, AFRC staff conducted a comparative fee review of both local and regional organizations to determine appropriate fee changes. As a result, the approved fee proposal includes new fees, increases, decreases and/or fee eliminations. The comprehensive restructuring of the fees is intended to:

- Simplify the fee structure and reduce process time for both patrons and staff
- Provide significant discounted facility pass options for regular, repeat patrons
- Offset increased operational costs such as utilities, maintenance and equipment replacement
- Establish new base fees that can be used for expanded programming options

Due to the number of individual fee changes contained within the restructured recreation fees, we are not able to list them all out in this PSA. The new fees will be updated on the City’s website as soon as possible. In the meantime, for more detailed information please contact AFRC staff at 575-439-4142 or afrc@ci.alamogordo.nm.us.
