Alamogordo Firefighters Sworn In

Alamogordo, NM Friday, April 20, 2018 Yesterday was a special day for the City of Alamogordo firefighters. During a small ceremony in the Municipal Court all of the Alamogordo Firefighters were sworn in for the first time since the division of the Department of Safety into Police and Fire. “It was so wonderful seeing all of the firefighters’ families present for the occasion, they are incredible people and we are so grateful for all they do to protect our community,” said Mayor Richard Boss. Judge Steve Lee and Judge Michael Suggs both participated in the ceremony. Fire Chief Jim LeClair said, “As the Alamogordo Fire Chief I could not be prouder than I am at this particular time. Yesterday was a great day for the Alamogordo Fire Department coming together as a collective group, and all being sworn in together. This act is affirmation that the Alamogordo Fire Department is one body, moving towards the same goal. As Henry Ford once said, ‘Coming together is a beginning; keeping together is progress; working together is success’. This quote perfectly describes our department. I am definitely pleased!”
