CITY OF ALAMOGORDO

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Emergency Water Outage

Alamogordo, NM Thursday, February 15, 2018 City crews will be conducting an emergency water outage today, February 15, 2018. This outage coincides with the scheduled outage that also took place today. City crews were successful in installing a 6" gate valve and fire hydrant but, the 8" primary water main sprung a severe leak while crews were restoring water service. Crews will begin excavating the line at 2:30 p.m. and a full repair is to follow excavation. Please be advised, water service will be out for the duration of the main line repair, residents and local businesses located on the North side of Highway 70 West beginning at LaVelle and ending at Amber Skies Retirement Community will be directly affected by this outage. The surrounding area could also see low pressure or no water pressure during the time of repairs. City crews are expected to have the 8" water main repaired and water service restored in the late evening hours; 8:00 p.m. is the targeted time for completion.
