Alamo Senior Center Closure

Alamogordo, NM Thursday, March 12, 2020 Based on the Governor's declaration, the North Central New Mexico Economic Development District Non-Metro Area on Aging has recommended the closure of all senior centers. The Alamo Senior Center will temporarily close its doors beginning on Monday, March 16th through Thursday, April 30th, or until no longer necessary.

Meals on Wheels food delivery will continue. For those aged 60 or above, who are not a part of the Meals on Wheel program and are able to drive, meal pick-up will be available in the drop off zone of the Senior Center Parking lot Monday - Friday from 11am to 1pm.

For those who require an assessment or reassessment for services provided at the senior center, assessments will be conducted over the phone, senior center consumers can expect a phone call from senior center staff.

If you have additional questions, please contact the Senior Center at 575-439-4150.
